

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, June 6, 1706.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated June 11.

Rome, May 22.

THE 17th Instant a Consistory was held, and the Pope made a Promotion of 19 Cardinals, whose Names are made public. His Holiness has created another, whose Name he reserves in Petto, but tis thought to be the Nuncio Davia. That Day and the next great Rejoycings were made here, according to Custom, for this Promotion. The new Cardinals that are in this City, have waited on the Pope and thank'd him for conferring that Dignity on them, and are taken up with making their Visits to the sacred College (or old Cardinals): And several Courtiers are dispatch'd to carry the Hats to those that are Absent. In the mean time, Signior Philipucci, one of the new Cardinals, excus'd himself from accepting that Dignity, telling the Pope he thought himself unworthy of it, and that besides he had not an Estate to keep up the Grandeur of it: And tho' the Pope gave him two Days to consider of it, and offer'd him a Present of 10000 Crowns, he persisted in his Refusal, and is retir'd into one of the Convents of this City.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated June 8.

Vienna, May 26. Yesterday the Count de Schlick Commissary General of War, went Post from hence for Bavaria, thence to proceed to the Army on the upper Rhine, and see them furnish'd with some things necessary. Remittances for 50000 Florins are sent to the Commissary of Provisions of that Army, and a Promise that in a little Time 350000 Florins more shall be sent to him.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated June 11.

Vienna, May 29. Advice being come from Tirnau that some Preliminaries of the Treaty of Peace that is negociating with the Malecontents of Hungary are adjust'd, M^r van Till is gone from hence for Presbourg; whither the Prince of Lorrain Bishop of Osnaburg will follow to Morrow or next Day at furthest, with Count Wratislaw the Emperor's other Commissioner. 'Tis talk'd at present, that the Emperor offers to give Prince Ragotski the County of Burgau, and erect it into a Principality; as an Equivalent for the Estate that Prince has in Hungary; in case the Treaty with the Malecontents take Effect. The Prince Ragotski is return'd hither from Hungary. The Counts of Staremberg and Thaur are gone to Hungary, to take a Review of the Emperor's Troops that are canton'd in the Neighbourhood of Presbourg, and see them supplied with all Necessaries. We have receiv'd an Account by Letters from Aleppo dated the 25th of January last, that the 12th of that Month Monsieur le Blanc the French Consul residing in that Town, desir'd the Bassa to deliver to him a Merchant nam'd Felissian, Numb. 1293.

The Royal and all the foreign Mi-nisters, and that his Majesty's Ambassadors and Edu-pages will be very numerous and pompous; and certainly that there will be above 1000 Horses in his

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated June 12.
Hildesheim, June 8. The King of Prussia has sent Word to the Elector of Hanover, that he design'd to set out from Berlin the 13th of this Month, to be at Hanover the 17th, thence to proceed the 19th to Cleves, and so to Holland. The Letters from Berlin say his Majesty will be accompanied

that he might send him to the Gallies of France,
as being a fugitive Subject of the King his Master.
The Bassa gave Order to some of his Officers to assist M. le Blanc in seizing the said Merchant, and accordingly in the Night they attempted to break into his House; but the Merchant after having oppos'd their Entrance some Time, found Means to get away and retire to the House of the English Consul, where he was in Safety the 25th of January. This Monsieur Felissian left France in 1681 when the Persecution of the Protestants began;
and retiring into Holland was naturaliz'd and made a Burgher of Amsterdam; after which he went to Turkey, and had been ferled at Aleppo 16 Years as a Dutch Merchant, without being at all molested
by the French till now.

From the Harl. and Amst. Courant, dated June 12.
Vienna, May 29. The Articles of the Treaty of Cessation of Arms in Hungary are printed and publish'd here in Latin, and are sign'd by Joannes Wencellaus, Count of Wratislaw, and Paulus Szecleny Archbishop of Colocza. They are 12 in Number, and import (among other things) that they shall be publish'd and observ'd in Transilvania as well as Hungary; and that the Imperial Troops should continue in the Quarters they were in at the Time this Cessation was agreed. Now 'tis rumour'd Prince Ragotski will not treat of Peace in Earnest, till the Cessation of Arms be fully executed in Transilvania, apprehending that the Imperial Troops will be come back from thence to the Tisibus, before Colonel Althan arrives in Transilvania with the Emperor's Order touching the said Cessation. Whereas according to the Tenour of the Articles, they ought to have kept in their Quarters in that Principality. General Herbeville is arriv'd here from Transilvania, and has made a Report to the Emperor of the State of Affairs there. Prince Eugene has sent Complaints hither, that the Succours which are on the march for Italy advance so slowly, that the Enemy will have time to intrench themselves on the Adige and the adjacent Posts so strongly, that the Imperialists will not be able to force a passage.
On Tuesday next, the Court will go to the Favorita, and then the Mourning for the Emperor Leopold will be laid aside. The Duke of Moles, Ambassador of Spain, is making Preparation to give magnificent Entertainments to the Nobility of this Court 8 Days together, for the News of the happy Relief of Barcelona. A Caroufel, or Tournament is to be held in the Court of the Palace of Favorita, on the same Occasion.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated June 12.
Hildesheim, June 8. The King of Prussia has sent Word to the Elector of Hanover, that he
design'd to set out from Berlin the 13th of this Month, to be at Hanover the 17th, thence to proceed the 19th to Cleves, and so to Holland. The Letters from Berlin say his Majesty will be accompanied

panied by the Prince Royal and all the foreign Ministers; and that his Majesty's Attendants and Equipage will be very numerous and pompous; particularly that there will be above 1000 Horses in his Retinue.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated June 11.

Paris, June 6. The 4th of this Month a Servant of M. des Ailleurs who attends Prince Ragotski in Hungary as Envoy from our King, arriv'd at Court. 'Tis said he was 29 Days on his Journey, and came disguis'd through Austria and Germany; and that he has brought Advice that the Turks will not meddle in the Affairs of Hungary, and that therefore Prince Ragotski finds himself oblig'd to make an Accommodation with the Imperial Court. 'Tis reported that Monsieur Chamillard being return'd from Flanders, has made his Report to the King, that since the Battle of Ramellies, our Army is diminish'd by 15 or 16 thousand Men, and that the Desertion still continued.

London, June 6. The Pembroke Galley arriv'd at Falmouth the 1st of this Month, in 14 Days from Lisbon, and brought Letters importing that the Court of Portugal had receiv'd Advice the 18th of May O. S. of the Relief of Barcelona; and that Orders were thereupon sent for the Army to march back towards Madrid, as soon as they had taken Ciudad Rodrigo, which was not doubtd had surrend'r'd by that Time.

At the Desire of several Persons of Quality.

At the Theatre Royal in Drury-Lane, this present Thursday, being the 6th of June, will be performed a Comedy call'd, The Tender Husband, or, The accomplished Fool. With all the Musick both Vocal and Instrumental taken out of the Play call'd Rolduca, or the British Heroine. And Dancing by Monsieur Chereux and Mrs. Santlow his Scholar. Also by Mrs. Evans taught by Monsieur Siris.

This Play is Sold by J. Knapton at the Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard, and R. Lincolne Next Nando's Coffee-House, Temple-Bar. An Entertainment, by Mr. CLINCH of BARNET, who imitates the Flute, Double Curtell, the Organ with 3 Voices, the Horn, Huntsman and Pack of Hounds, the Sham Doctor, the Old Woman, the Drunken Man, the Bulls: All Instruments are perform'd by his natural Voice. To be seen this present Evening, at 7 o'Clock at the Crown Tavern in Smithfield. Price 1s.

Those are to acquaint all Persons that have occasion to drink Hamstead Mineral Water, that the said Water is remov'd from North's Coffee-House in King's-street by Guild-hall, to the second Door from the said Coffee-House in the same Street, to the Black Post, which is writ upon, Hamstead Water sold here, where it will continue to be brought fresh from the Wells every Morning.

Whereas a Tax-Book was dropt on Tuesday the 4th of this Instant June, betwixt Brick-Court in the Temple, and Mr. Borrett's Office in the King's-Bench-Walk. Whoever hath taken it up is desir'd to leave it at Mr. Pen's Shop, a Stationer, in the Temple; and they shall be Rewarded for their Pains, it being of no use to any but the Owner.

Whereas the House of Mr. Thomas Blackmore in Hackney, was broke open the 19th of May last in the Morning, and there was stoln from thence a large Drab Riding-Coat, a red Colour Cloth Coat and Buttons of the same Colour lined, with Blue, and a silver Porringer mark'd M. W. Whoever gives Notice of any of the Persons concern'd in the said Robbery, to Mr. Blackmore at his House in Hackney, or at the 3 Anchors in King-street near Guild-hall, within one Month, so as they may be apprehended, shall upon their Conviction receive Five Pounds as a Reward.

To Let upon Lease Four Closes of good Meadow Grounds, containing about 26 Acres, well Fenc'd and Parted, having a good Pond of Water in each Close, situate near Holloway in Islington Parish. Inquire at Mr. Gery's the Minister next Door to the Py'd Bull in the said Parish.

This Day is publish'd,

A Review of Her Royal Highness the Princess Sophia's Letter to the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, and that of Sir Rowland Gwynne to the Right Honourable the Earl of Stamford: Or, a Jacobite Plot against the Protestant Succession Discover'd. Occasion'd by a Scurrilous and Factious Libel, lately Printed against the most Serene House of Hanover: With invincible Reasons for an Humble Address to Her most Sacred Majesty to invite over the Presumptive Heir of the Crown, by that means infallibly to secure the Protestant Succession, and in that our Laws, Religion and Constitution against the Power and Intrigues of the French King, in Conjunction with the Jacobites, and others of this Nation. Price 2s. Printed for the Author, and Sold by the Booksellers of London and Westminster.

Proposals for Printing by Subscription Mathesis Juvenilis; or, A Course of Mathematicks for the use of young Students, &c. Containing plain and easy Treatises, by way of Question and Answer in Arithmetick, Geometry, Trigonometry, Fortification, Architecture, Statics, Mechanics, Opticks, Catoptricks, Dioptricks, Astronomy, the use of the Globes, Chronology and Dialling, &c. made English from the Latin of J. Christopher Sturmius, Author of the Mathesis Enucleata. The Book with a very great many Copper Cuts will make 2 or 4 Volumes in 120, the same time as the Author's Book formerly publish'd, and is propos'd at 15s. per Book, a 7th Part, which reduces it to about 12s. 10d. per Book, to any but Subscribers it will not be sold under 18s. The Undertaker is D. Midwinter at the Rose and Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard. Subscriptions are desir'd to be sent in before the 24th of June, the Book being then to be put to the Press and but few more to be printed than are subscrib'd for.

This Day is publish'd,

The New Spanish Dictionary with a Spanish Grammar, Price to Subscribers 1 l. 7 for 6, the large Paper 1 l. 10 s. All Gentlemen that have Subscrib'd are desir'd to pay their second Payment and take their Books, no Allowance to be given but to those who have Subscrib'd. Printed for George Sawbridge at the 3 Flower-de-luces in Little-Britain.

Lately publish'd,

A Sermon Preach'd at St. Andrew's Holborn on Sunday April 21. 1706. by Tho. Manningham, D. D. Rector of the said Parish, and Chaplain in Ordinary to her Majesty. Publish'd at the request of the Parish. Printed for Edward Place at Furnivall's Inn-gate in Holborn, and Sold by B. Bragg at the Black Raven in Peter-northern Row.

Just publish'd,

An Ode to his Grace the Duke of Marlborough. Double Dealer. Way of the World. Love for Love. Mourning Bride. Old Bachelor. Tamerlain. Fair Penitent. Ulysses. Rites. Timon of Athens. Careless Husband. Recruiting Officer. And the last Edition of Dr. Garth's Dispensatory, with new Descriptions and Epigrams. Sold by E. Berridge Sanger at the Post-house by the Middle Temple-Gate in Fleetstreet, and Tho. Arkinton at the White Swan in St. Paul's Church-yard, where is to be sold all sorts of new books, Plays and Novels, &c.

Notwithstanding divers Plaisters, &c. are publish'd pretending a Cure for Corns, which are generally made to imitate the noble and effectual Plaister (publish'd by the first Author) which not only presently removeth the Anguish thereof, but likewise deadneth them to the root, infallibly and safely being distinguish'd with a Seal, having this Motto. Art finds means. To be had only of Mr. Sampton at the Angel in Cornhill over against the Mermaid Tavern, at Mr. Osborn's at the Rose and Crown under St. Dunstan's Church in Fleetstreet, and at Mr. Girard's at the three Flower-de-luces near Northumberland-House in the Strand. Try-shops, at 1s. per Box, call'd up with Directions.

Never before publish'd,

The Oinker Water, which perfectly cures all Cankers, Pustules, Heats, Inflammations and Erupting Ulcers in the Mouth, tho' never so far gone, even to the loss of part of Tongues or Lips, and has sav'd the Lives of several, when all other Medicines have fail'd; is to be had only at Robin's Coffee-House in Exchange-Ally, at 2s. 6d. the Bottle, with printed Directions. Note, its virtue decays not by keeping.

The Famous Antirheumatick Tincture, prepared only by Mr. Geo. Willon Chymist in his Laboratory in Well-yard near St. Bartholomew's Hospital by Smithfield. The Reputation this Tincture has acquir'd by its wonderful Operation, put me beyond thought of ever publishing it again in this manner, till I was inform'd that it was counterfeited by some Person that falsely pretends to it; whereas its true Preparation exceeds the Skill of common Jumbleers of conies for Medicines. It hath cured several hundred Persons of Quality and others, not only of Rheumatick Pains, but also of other chronic Diseases. They who have the curiosity to be farther satisfi'd of its Effects, may at the place stor'd find several Letters from persons of Quality, Physicians, Chyrurgeons and Apothecaries, giving an account of the admirable Cures it has perform'd. It is no where sold but at the place above mention'd and by my Daughter Mrs. Willon at the Harinet's Head six Doors from James's street in Long-Acre towards Drury-Lane. It is put up in Bottles containing something more than half a quarter of a Pint, at 2s. 6d. the Bottle with Directions. The Materia Medica, and Modus Preparandi (in general) shall not be denied to any Physician, especially to those Gentlemen that have been enter'd by me in the excellent and useful Science of Chymistry, of which number there are many eminent Physicians now living in England, Scotland, Ireland, France, Italy, Germany, Swedeland, &c.

ADVERTISEMENT.

Epigrams on Subjects Divine and Moral, for the Entertainment of Youth: Chiefly intended as an Exercise for Children that Learn to Write. With a Recommendationary Poem by N. Tate, Esq; Poet-Laureat to her Majesty. Printed for John Lawrence at the Angel in the Poultry. Price 6d.

The Second Edition of a Letter to Mr. Dodwell; wherein in all the Arguments in his Epistolary Discourse against the Immortality of the Soul are particularly answered, and the judgment of the Fathers concerning that Matter truly represented. By Samuel Clarke, M. A. Chaplain to the Lord Bishop of Norwich. Printed for J. Knapton at the Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard, Price 1s. Where may be had his Boyles Lectures for 1704, 1705, his Paraphrases on the Evangelists, his Essays on Baptism, Confirmation, &c. and his 3 Sermon before the Queen Dec. 30. 1705.

LONDON: Printed, and sold by Sam. Buckley at the Dolphin in Little-Britain.